a complete step by step guide to the enormous task of putting together and producing a successful school production clippings from the anadarko daily news concerning the anadark high school class of 1951 their neighbors and contemporaries this book could save you 1 million ok maybe not but some school districts have spent that much defending themselves and not always successfully in first amendment lawsuits brought by students and their parents first amendment litigation is on the rise across the nation and as any principal who has sat through a deposition in one of those cases can tell you the raw emotions and zealous anger that fuels such disputes can become a massive distraction from your real job of running a school the oldest rule is a comprehensive examination of the different first amendment issues involving students that public school administrators and attorneys are increasingly facing on daily basis we will look at such topics as school prayer dress codes student threats and cyberbullying the distribution of literature the use of public facilities by outside groups the celebration of religious holidays and the rise of esoteric religions and their impact in the public schools written by chris gilbert an attorney with over twenty one years experience advising and representing school districts big and small urban and rural this book combines discussions of the legal standards and key case decisions with practical advice and hypotheticals jerri garretson lived a total of 33 years in manhattan kansas in three periods this book features 55 topics about life in the years she was growing up there plus 13 mini biographies of teachers and neighbors that were important in her life it is illustrated with over 800 photos of people places and events and even everyday objects most of us no longer use to assist readers unfamiliar with manhattan she has included maps and to anchor local events to the nation and the world there is a timeline the book is thoroughly indexed though many dates and events are mentioned it is not a history of the city but rather an entertaining account about the way of life in that time and place please be aware that this is a 298 page heavily illustrated book in the same fixed format as the printed book as such it is a download of about large download of approximately 227 mb and will take much longer to download than a novel in flowing format that has no illustrations includes announcements of extension and home study courses and of special programs conducted by the extension division lists of books available reading lists etc
